Water Cure Establishment.

The above institution is now open for the reception of pations. It is located about five miles from the city, on the Carthage pike, and but a few rods from the Hamitton, Cincinnati and Dayton Railroad, in the rear and at the same distance from the Mismi Canal, in the front, rendering it easy of access to those desirous of enjoying the benefits of the institution.

To the lover of nature, the parts of the country can furnish a more pleasing variety of scenery than spreads itself before the traveller all the way from Cincinnati to the Cure. There nature and art combine, rendering the view beautiful beyond description.

The new, large, and beautiful Baince displays the tasts pish a more pleasing variety of scenery than spreads itself before the traveller all; the way from Cincinnati to the Cure. There nature and art combine, rendering the view beautiful beyond description.

The new, large, spå beautiful Bdiface displays the tarie of the artist at a glarne. The nestiness and elegance of the interior, combined the the numerous attractions which present themselves to the invalid, cannot fail to render this Establishment at desirable one. The Halls are extensive, the Rooms spacious and inviting, where the invalid can range at piezanci, free from atmospheric influences, in inclement weather. The Red Rooms are well ventilated, and neathy furnished; the Bath Rooms are ample and commodious, being convenient for the application of watern modious, being convenient for the application of watern indious, being convenient for the application of watern sirength by healthful exercise. The Springs which far and neighborhood are remarkable for healthfulness, purity of air, and variety of scenery. All things combined, we cannot think of a more desirable place, for those seeking health, than this institution, water both cold and delicious. AMERICAN WHIG REVIEW.

In the origins: Prospectus of the American Review, inLeued at Washington by Mr. Colton, its former Proprietor and Editor, a number of the leading Whig Members of the Twenty-seventh Congress (18-26-8) subscribed their ames to the following resolution:

"Sarnestly approving the plan of such a National organ,
long needed and of inanifest importance, the undersigned agree to contribute for Its pages, from time to time, such communications as may be necessary to set forth and defend the doctrines of the United Whig Party of the Union
Signed by George P. Marsh, Daniel D. Barnard, J. Mc Pherson Berrien, J. R. Ingersoll, E. Joy Morris, T. L.
Clingman, Daniel Webster, R. C. Winthrop, Thomas Butler King, Hamilton Pish, J. P. Kennedy, W.m. S. Archer, Rufus Choate, Alexander H. Riephens."

An engraved portrait of some distinguished person will be found in every number of the Review, They will usually be portraits of living American Stafesmen, and whenver that its possible, will be accompanied with an authentic Memoir of the person represented.

The first objects of the Heview are 16 course political;
it is designed to set forth and defend the principles, the measurer ond, the pren. of the United, Whig. Perry of the Union. It has been matter of just reproach to that Party that though it embraces its die proportion of the intelligence and learning of the country, it has no Quarterly or Mouthly Organ devoted to the expression and defense of its opinions and measures. The sonauctors of the American Review have done what'n, them lies to remove this and truth.
